

Stingray

Learn about Stingrays

Stingray Facts

- Stingrays are flat fish that swim across the ocean floor.
- They find food hidden in the sand.
- Many stingrays have a sharp barb on their tail for defense.
- Some stingrays bury themselves in sand to stay hidden.

Word List

- fish - animals that live in the water and breathe using a part of their body called gills
- tail - the rear part of the body
- barb - the sharp end of a stingray's tail
- ocean - large areas of saltwater (water that is full of salt) where plants, fish and other animals live
- sand - tiny pieces of rocks and shells.
- defense - protection

Stingray Sounds

- No known sounds

Did you know a stingray's barb can grow back if it breaks!